First weekend at Bloem Show is packed with highlights

Bloem Show starts on Thursday, 27th of April and lasts until Sunday, 7th of May. The first weekend of Bloem Show is a long weekend and an ideal opportunity to visit Bloem Show.

There are several highlights over the weekend that cannot be missed.

- On the Agricultural side, the SA Saddle Horse Championships are already in full swing, with their finals ending on Saturday 29 April.
 - The Merino Classic National Championships and the Ayrshire National Championships start on the 27th of April.
 - Over the weekend from Friday, the agricultural program is packed. The National Shearing Championships, National Miniatures Horse Championships, Merino Sheep and Jack Russell Dogs, the SA Saddle Horse National Championships' finals, the Horse Jumping Challenge performance and Suffolk Regional Championships.
 - On the 1st of May, the National Friesian Championships, World Goat, Savanna and Kalahari Reds championships, the Toyota SA Auctioneer Competition will start and the Vleissentraal SA Studbook Elite 2017 Bull Growth Tests Class winners will be announced.
- On the entertainment side there is a large variety on the program.
 - 27th of April is also the ideal day to bring the children to Bloem Show. “Afrikaans gaan klein”, with Arno Jordaan, Driekie the Storyteller, Lollos, Tjiff and Tjaff, Buster and Bella can be seen on the Computicket stage from 11:00 to 12:30. The Little Miss Bloem Show and Little Miss Daisy are crowned on the Clover Stage at 17:00. Children also pay R5 at the Padstal and can decorate and eat their own Cupcake. Also visit the Drikus Animal Farm at the Go Green Expo and see farm animals from up close. The Kiddies Inflatable City has moved to the entrance of the Amusement Park. There is also a brand new ride at the Amusement Park, the Extreme Swings. Don't miss it.

- The Go Green Expo takes place from Thursday, 27th of April to Saturday, 29th of April on the grass area next to the BKB hall. Attend and learn more about green options, your own vegetable garden, saving water and electricity and much more.
- Also visit the Fitness and Health Expo daily in the Roses Hall.
- Visit quality exhibitors in our exhibition halls and outdoor areas - more than 350 exhibitors offer a variety at Bloem Show this year.
- Friday evening, 28th of April, Mr and Mrs Windmill Bloem Show are crowned as well as our first Miss Teen Bloem Show. Brendan Peyper is the guest artist.
- The NABBA X-TREME Body's Classic Bodybuilding Competition, the Back to Back Shear Demonstrations and the semi-final of the Computicket Talent Search Competition are also taking place.
- Sunday is own in its kind with the first Classical afternoon concert from 13:00 on the Computicket stage, hosted by Arco Musica with singers Jannie Moolman, Corlea Botha and local singers Cezanne Yzelle, Herman Strauss and Arend Brink Jnr.
- Monday is a public holiday - the Dance Extravaganza by various local dance schools, takes place on the Computicket stage. At 11:00 on Monday, the Ola / Radio Rosestad Fun Walk will leave the Daisy Hall for those who have pre-registered. Don't miss out on the Cheetah Players CrossFit Fitness Challenge on the Clover Stage from 16:00 to 17:30. Tonight is the Final of the Computicket Talent Search competition on the Clover stage. Dillan Lerm is the artist on the Computicket Stage.

Remember to buy Fun Fair tickets before the 27th of April at Computicket and get 50% discount. Start planning your second visit on our half-price days, on the 2nd of May and the 4th of May 2017.

Your weekend is planned - visit Bloem Show and enjoy a weekend full of fun. Please visit www.bloemskou.co.za for the full daily program with times and more information. Bloem Show lasts until the 7th of May.
